How much ma-gic is there? in the sun set?

who can really say? it's always different a dif-ferent pic-ture day af-ter day Life is blessed with end-less li-ttle se-crets Just watch them fly

The sun, the moon, their move-ments the sky, the Earth, the sun-sets

Just watch them fly And e-very li-ttle se-cret that dwells in our minds just listen to their song

Everythought is di-fferent, e-very dream is new It's never the same

There is hidden ma-gic in e-very li-ttle se-cret

Just watch them fly The sea, the mounts the peo-ple, it's all so sur-pri-sing When you watch them fly

Just watch them fly Just watch them
